FIVE (5) Weeks to Mt Buller Sprint

In just FIVE (5) weeks the nation's greatest tarmac hill climb sprint will be HAPPENING

YES that's right, there is no other motoring event that can compare with the Mt Buller Sprints in Australia, its that unique.

But what's even MORE exciting this year is that the Mt Buller Sprints which will be held from November 1 to 3, 2008, that's immediately before the nation's other great race the Melbourne Cup. Will be host to some of the country's biggest and most powerful Muscle Cars.

Yes that's right this year Organizers of the Mt Buller Sprint, Mountain Motor Sports have decided to include Muscle Cars as well as Group C, Group Nc, Biante and or Rare Heritage car participation in this years Mt Buller Sprint program'

And if that is not enough – there will also be Historic Motor Bikes charging up the Mt Buller Climb across the first day of this year's Mt Buller Sprint Meeting.

It promises to be nothing short of a weekend of FULL-ON-Motorsport-ACTION that should not be missed.

Mt Buller, is located just immediately to the east of Mansfield which itself is located on the flanks of Victoria's famous and visually spectacular high country and surrounding areas famous for there relaxed offerings whatever your tastes in addition to seeing motor sport action at its spectator best.
