October 1st 2008 – Immediate Release

Mt Buller the place to be for Motor Sport Action on Nov 1-3

Up to 100 competitors are expected to compete in the fifth running of Victoria's Mt Buller Sprint which is to run from November 1 – 3

The annual hill climb, tarmac rally styled event promises huge excitement for competitors and spectators alike and is the biggest single event staged at Mt Buller throughout the year whilst from a motor sport perspective it presents an attraction few race and rally drivers will dare to miss.

Multiple Bathurst winner Jim Richards is expected to run having previously won the demanding event. But he will face tough competition from many quarters with many returning keen to go faster than last year over the 16 km uphill Mt Buller Sprint course.

Channel Nine's Car Show host Glenn Ridge, who is a passionate motor sport competitor will be participating in his Mazda RX7 SP

Mt Buller presents an excellent motor sport challenge and also as an outstanding spectator venue with viewing points from the clock tower in the village and car park.

Furthermore spectators can dine on a selection of gourmet foods whilst enjoying specialty wine and beer while watching the cars at close range so from a spectator perspective the Mt Buller Sprint is hard to beat when it comes to fast action and relaxed surrounding from which to enjoy ALL that will be taking place between November 1 to 3 – which is the weekend immediately before Melbourne Cup.

Mt Buller is just under three hours drive from Melbourne, and is the most accessible alpine resort in Australia, offering the perfect summer weather escape. Mt Buller features a range of outstanding restaurants and various accommodation options, making it a great place to enjoy the local cuisine and traditional mountain hospitality.
